Every officer of election shall retain and preserve, for a period of twenty-two months from the date of any general, special, or primary election of which candidates for the office of President, Vice President, presidential elector, Member of the Senate, Member of the House of Representatives, or Resident Commissioner from the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico are voted for, all records and papers which come into his possession relating to any application, registration, payment of poll tax, or other act requisite to voting in such election, except that, when required by law, such records and papers may be delivered to another officer of election and except that, if a State or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico designates a custodian to retain and preserve these records and papers at a specified place, then such records and papers may be deposited with such custodian, and the duty to retain and preserve any record or paper so deposited shall devolve upon such custodian. Any officer of election or custodian who willfully fails to comply with this section shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.
 52 U.S.C.A. § 20701 (West)

Any person, whether or not an officer of election or custodian, who willfully steals, destroys, conceals, mutilates, or alters any record or paper required by section 20701 of this title to be retained and preserved shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.
 52 U.S.C.A. § 20702 (West)

To be clear, you're not indebted to me at all. I'm grateful for public servants who are fair and just, and today you showed that you are. I'm just a lawyer who has plenty of opinions to share ;) I'll gladly share them with anyone who will listen!

Please, I had Democratic Party representatives and party chairs wanting to come to her aid with defense attorneys and financial support and safe housing today. I told them she had posted bond and I heard Calixtro might represent her.
